Reviews

I just started off reading this article publication. This really is for all who statte there had not been a really worth looking at. You will not feel monotony at anytime of your own time (that's what catalogs are for about should you ask me).

Cambridge University Press. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, I Went Swimming: Beginning to Read: Sight Vocabulary Non-fiction: Stage B, Gill Munton, Richard Brown, Kate Ruttle, Jean Glasberg, I Went Swimming is part of the Key Skills strand (High Frequency Words) of Cambridge Reading. It is a child's recount of a visit to the swimming pool with his father. Photographs are used to make the books real and relevant to children's own experiences. The language is simple with repetition of high frequency words - ideal for young readers in the Foundation stage (aged 4). There are 20 non-fiction books in the High Frequency Words strand, which provide a comprehensive resource for teaching the 45 NLS high-frequency words. The words are introduced in the context of real texts through three different text types - 'I remember' (recount), 'how to' (instruction) and 'find out about' (report). This book is also available in a pack of six.
