Not illustrated. 1885 Excerpt: .that four directors of Filatures from Lombardy have gone to the interior of Shanghai to direct the reeling of silk designed to be forwarded to European houses. They have taken with them several women who are proficient in this art to assist them in their duties of instructing the Chinese in the use of the modern Filatures. China has no desire to remain behind Japan in the perfection of her silk prepared for export to European markets, and in this particular evinces a public spirit that is highly commendable to our own National Government and the sovereign States of the American Republic. These directors receive the munificent sum of 6,000 sterling for an outfit to establish a Filature, and 4,000 sterling as a direct compensation for their services, which 11 Progressa very quaintly remarks is not bad. SUPERIORITY OF AMERICANS AS QUICK WORKERS. Experiments show that we can produce better silk in America on account of the higher mental condition of our people, which shows itself in the ingenuity and inventive spirit ever improving on the worn out crude methods of the Asiatic race, in the perfection of machinery lessening manual labor, in the aid furnished by scientific researches, and in the quickness and skill of the workmen. In an official report made at a large meeting held in reference to Extracted from a report of W. C. Wyckhoff, Secretary of Silk Association of America. the manual labor question in Switzerland, the fact was mentioned that...
