Barton arrived in Liverpool, per steamship Minnesota from New York. These brethren were recently appointed by the First Presidency in Zion to come on missions to Great Britain. Elder George Coombs, who is on a visit to his relatives in this country, accompanied these brethren. Elder Lloyd left Salt Lake City, May 27th; Elders Thomas and Coombs, June 4th, and Elder Barton, June 10. CORRESPONDENCE. AT SEA. S. S. Idaho, off Queenstown, June 25, 1874. Prest. Jos. F. Smith. Dear Brother, --Soon after bidding good bye to you and the brethren and sisters who accompanied us on board, we completed our berthing arrangements and organized the company into ten. wards, appointing four chaplains (three Scandinavian and one English,) and the requisite number of guard captains for night service. After singing and prayer, in the different compartments, all retired last night, feeling well, the water being Very smooth. This morning there is a little more motion to the vessel, of which a few of the people seem to be fully conscious, for the casting up of accounts has commenced, while some other begin to experience that indescribable something which never fails to impart very peculiar feelings. Most of the Saints are well and, as a matter of course, the songs of Zion are heard reverberating through the air. The total number of passengers on board is 1, 117. We trust that, through the blessing of the Lord, our company will arrive in health and...
