Poisoned Pen Press, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Reprint. 211 x 137 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Former Chief Warrant Officer Sam Blackman lost a leg in Iraq and emerged from the V.A. hospital in Asheville, NC, as a bitter civilian without a job or a future. But when he solved a series of local murders, Sam found new meaning for his life. Now he and his partner, Nakayla Robertson, are opening a detective agency. They have high hopes that the thriving mountain region will provide a steady stream of cases. Their first client, a quirky elderly woman in a retirement community, makes a strange request. She wants Sam to right a wrong she committed more than 70 years ago. Her victim: F. Scott Fitzgerald. Her crime: stealing a manuscript. Sam s task seems simple enough: retrieve the woman s lockbox and deliver the manuscript to Fitzgerald s heirs. But nothing is simple for Sam. The lockbox is sealed with a swastika, a symbol his client insists predates the Nazis and reflects a scene from The Great Gatsby. Then a security guard is killed and the lockbox disappears. Not only has this investigation triggered a murder, but Sam s final military case has followed him from Iraq and neither he nor anyone close to him is safe. Mark de Castrique is the author of the Sam Blackman series and Buryin Barry series, both set in the mountains of North Carolina where he lives with his wife Linda. He has also written two mysteries for young adults.
