David & Charles. 1 Paperback(s), 2008. soft. Book Condition: New. Thanks to his Diary, Samuel Pepys has become one of the most fascinating characters of 17th-century Britain. Writing almost daily from 1659 to 1669, his life encompassed historical and social events of enormous consequence, including the execution of Charles I and the Great Fire of London. This collection of writings from Pepys and his contemporaries in which the Diary is the central resource captures the spirit of Restoration London as it grew...
