Reviews

A superior quality book along with the font employed was exciting to see. It is one of the most amazing book i have got read through. You wont really feel monotony at anytime of the time (that's what catalogs are for about in the event you ask me).

Excerpt: . . . down in the boat twelve miles in the morning, and back in a big open horse car toward evening through the fields and woods--very pleasant indeed--staid a long while in the water--weather perfect--Mother is better to-day--she has been pretty sick, with several ups and downs--I am as well as a fellow can be--eat and sleep tremendous--shall stay here a week or so longer--shall be back first part of next week if nothing happens--Well Pete, I believe that is all this morning--Good bye, my darling son, and a long, long kiss from your loving father. Walt. VI Brooklyn, July 28 1871, Friday. Dear Son. I shall return on Monday next, in the 12. 30 train from Jersey City--(the train I usually come in). Pete, I have received your letter of 26th. Mother seems to-day full as well as usual--I continue all right--I have been on to New Haven, about 75 miles from here--a former friend of mine is in a dying condition there from consumption, and expressed such a strong desire to see me, that I went on. I thought he would die while I was there--he was all wasted to a skeleton, faculties good, but voice only a low whisper--I returned last night, after midnight. --Well, bub, my time here is short--I have had a good quiet visit--the best in some respects yet--and I feel satisfied--My darling son, we will very soon be together again, your loving comrade, Walt. LETTERS OF 1872 I BROOKLYN,...
