Not illustrated. 1887 Excerpt: .life has been made richer by my acquaintance with manj holy and wise men whom I have known--John Dempster, George Garey, Glezen Fillmore, George Peck, Fitch Reed and W. W. Ninde. My intercourse with them has made me wiser, better, happier and holier than otherwise I might have been. I cannot dwell longer on this memoir. Much more could be spoken. His failure in health came suddenly after all. To me it seems but a few months since he began to show signs of failure of his physical constitution. I noticed it first at the last quarterly meeting when he asked to be excused from any part in administering the communion, and hesitancy in speech at the love-feast. On Sabbath morning, November 6, the final stroke came and on Tuesday at 4 p. M. he was not, for God took him. He was ripe and is...

Reviews

The most effective publication i at any time go through. This is certainly for all those who statte that there had not been a worthy of looking at. Its been printed in an extremely straightforward way which is merely soon after i finished reading this publication where basically changed me, change the way in my opinion.

-- Madysen Rutherford

Unquestionably, this is the best work by any author. Better then never, though i am quite late in start reading this one. I realized this publication from my dad and i advised this pdf to find out.
